“ With deepest sympathy, our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

My dearest, Mrs. Johnson, there are no words, that can truly ever express the love I will always have for you. I will always remember the times we shared, the laughs, the crys, sharing creative thoughts together, as we sat and talked for hours. But most importantly our spiritual fellowship.

You taught me so much more than I could have ever imagined from the day I met you. And throughout the years it progressed. I learned to relax, not take life so seriously. You taught me to keep moving forward with your strength. You inspired me to never give up, and you didn't even know that you were truly my inspiration. I watched you and I absorbed so many great characteristics, and I applied them to my daily living. You showed me such an unconditional love and gave to me a treasure of wisdom that I will hold in my heart and share as you would want me to. Even where there was wrong, you saw the good, and I'm ever so grateful!

God placed you in my life, and set my family and I in the presence of his Angel!. My family and I, especially Brandon as well as Makayla were truly blessed to be in your life, and in taking part in the caring for you. They miss you and are deeply saddened by your absence. Brandon told me to be sure to let you know he loves you, and thanks you.

You showed us the true meaning of an Agape love and its mark will forever be upon us and within us. That's the kind of love you can never forget, it's a love like no other, a Godly love, and my family and I are honored.

There is a emptiness in my heart, but I know in time we all will heal through the good memories we all shared. God knew exactly what he was doing Mrs Johnson, when you told me things only God and I knew. I thank you for believing in me, for helping me with what became our vision. For never judging me and most of all for being my friend! The day you referred to me as your friend, made my heart swell with such joy! I thank you for listening for hours while helping me prepare opening speeches for churches and helping me with sermons, and uplifting me and telling me how proud you were of me. These things I will miss, but most of all you. I love you so much. Please know that I will keep this place in my heart open just for you!

One thing I know, is the love and strength you shared and showed will get us all through this sad time. It was an honor and a privilege to have had the times we spent together, through all things. And you, My dearest Mrs Johnson will forever be, My Friend!

And may the Love and strength you shared, honor your memory and help us cherish the time we had with You!

I will always love you

Wanda
