“ Larry Ross was one of the most generous, kind and witty men I have had the good fortune to have spent time with over the years. The dedication to family and the open affection towards them was always inspiring. A tough guy with a soft heart and a gentle way who will be greatly missed.

“ My heart is so heavy. As I write this tears are welling up in my eyes. I feel like I've lost my dad. He and Mrs Ross have always treated me like one of the family. I met him through his sons Bryan and Bruce. Kind, generous, compassionate and caring are just a few of the many words to describe him. I spent many holidays with the Ross family. So much love was always evident in their house. He loved his family and it was equally as evident how much love they felt for him. I always loved going to karaoke to listen to him sing with and without his kids. He definitely did Roy Orbison proud. Everyone that met him loved him and I never heard anyone say a unkind word about him. He was a friend to all. To his family, I wrap my arms around you with love. May god bless each and every one of you. Rest in peace Mr Ross. You will never be forgotten.
