

Leonard Mendel Nathan

November 22, 1945 - June 13, 2013

Leonard Mendel Nathan passed away suddenly on June 13, 2013. He will be remembered for his keen sense of humor, generous spirit and charismatic personality. He was the son of Sol Nathan and Bertha Lipp Nathan. He is survived by his daughter Mattea R. Nathan, nephew David H. Lidsky and numerous cousins. His family would also like to recognize his former wife and dear friend Chere Proler who was with him in his final days.

He attended the University of Houston before joining the U.S. Army. While in Viet Nam he served as an intelligence specialist in an elite unit, the Long Range Reconnaissance Patrol (LRRP). Upon leaving the military with the rank of Sergeant, he continued his studies at the University of Houston before beginning a lifelong career in restaurant and club management.
