“ Margaret will always be a treasured memory of faithful and gracious service to the grieving at St. John Vianney. It was my privilege to give her the anointing of the sick just recently. I regret I am unable to participate in her mass because of First Friday commitments. She remains in my prayers.

“ Many many years ago, we lived on Traviata, across the street from the wonderful Parker family....and down the block. Our baby, Virginia, was not happy sleeping in her crib. She would sleep in her buggy. So, when Jean and Judy were in Junior High, they would push her in her buggy until she fell asleep. They would then push the buggy up on the front porch so I could see it and hear her. It was such a life saver to me, as I was exhausted from holding her and rocking her all the time. Jean and Judy were wonderful helpers and so sweet and caring. They were sweet and caring because of their dear Mother, Margaret. She was always smiling and kind. She stood out in the neighborhood as a special person, with a deep understanding of Christian values. She lived them, I am sure to the end. with kind love,
Mrs. Stephens
