“ Sam,

I am so sorry to hear about Pat. Please accept the prayers from all of the Knight of Columbus at Epiphany and my wife and I. I know that everyone in Independence is keeping you and your family in their thoughts.

“ Sam,

The Taube Family was deeply moved and saddened upon hearing of the death of Pat. We hasten to extend our expression of sympathy in this Ingraffia hour of trial.

While the privilege of knowing Pat was limited to several Ortloff Christmas Parties, we realize the extent of the loss you have sustained. Janis's mother departed this veil of tears about 2-weeks ago.

At a time like this, mere words are empty and shallow. Yours is a suffering which is universal. It belongs to every human in every corner of the world. A deep anguish which, sooner or later cuts into every human heart, both the strong and the weak.

While death is the inevitable goal of every Christian, there may be some small degree of consolation in the thought that death is but a narrow starlit strip between the companionship of yesterday and the happy reunion of tomorrow.

I hope you find some solace in this thought.

With best regards,

The Taube Family
