

Matthew Kendall Harris

April 25, 1985 - March 29, 2021

Matt Harris, 35, of Bulverde, TX passed away Monday, March 29, 2021 in College Station, Texas from complications resulting from sleep apnea. Matt was born April 25, 1985 in Houston, TX to Kendall and Susan Harris. He is survived by his parents; his wife of 6 years, Cassandra Betley; his sister, Catherine Harris as well as aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and other extended family.

Matt lived in, and loved the Houston area most of his life. He attended Cy Springs High School and then college at Sam Houston State University. Matt later owned a business refinishing doors in the humid Texas climate.

Matt's passions were grounded locally with friends and family, camping and the outdoors. Matt also enjoyed NASCAR, woodworking, fishing, shooting, karaoke and he dominated at the bowling alley. He was a fantastic singer and played many instruments. Matt was loved by those who knew him, and he loved the ones who loved him. He was passionate, hilarious, charming, engaging, and had a gift for talking. He was enjoyed by many and will be greatly missed.

A Private Memorial Service celebrating Matt's life will be held with his family and close friends present.

In lieu of flowers, there will be a charity to be determined at a later date, please check the website for more details.
