Nahid Latifi Nezami

1947-2024

Nahid Latifi Nezami, 76, of Houston passed away September 1, 2024. Nahid was born November 6, 1947, in Tehran, Iran to Javad and Taji Mohyi. She is preceded in death by her parents. She is survived by her husband of 51 years of marriage Piruz Nezami; her son Mani Nezami; her sisters Azar and Mina Mohyi; her brother Bahram Mohyi; and nephew Pejman Ali-Panahi.

Nahid grew up in Tehran and graduated from Alvand High School. In 1976, she and Piruz moved to Paris, France, where they lived for a year. Afterward, Nahid, Piruz, and Mani immigrated to the United States in 1986.

Nahid had a razor-sharp sense of humor and a devilish smile. She was capable of diffusing any tense situation with a well-timed joke. A voracious reader, Nahid was addicted to the written word. Rarely would she be found without a book in hand. In particular, she loved William Faulkner, Tennessee Williams, and Fyodor Dostoevsky. Nahid had a near-encyclopedic knowledge of American, Italian and French cinema. She was a deeply creative person who enjoyed writing, arts and crafts. In the kitchen, she was unmatched—the woman could whip up a mean lubia polo.

Most importantly, she lived a life of love. She loved many and was loved by many. Please join us as we celebrate her life on Sunday September 8, 2024, at 11:00AM at Dettling Funeral Home 14094 Memorial Dr. Houston, TX 77079, with reception to follow. In Lieu of flowers please consider a charitable donation to PugHearts Houston.

“ Nahid, my friend and family.

My stylish friend who told me “why go to hair salon? Let me cut your hair”! And then they would follow it up with a nice dinner.

Piruz and Nahid were as one person in my life and it’s unreal to see her gone. It feels so sad.

Nahid suddenly became a memory.

A long meaningful, humoristic and caring person’s life, which just stopped to be.

My dear Piruz and Mani, Waking up in the morning and remembering that she is really gone is a feeling that can not be put in writing and It is not possible to explain the sadness when a part of our life leaves this world and there is no hope to bring it back.

All my memories of Nahid pass by me “all at the same time”, from our life in Tehran and travels in Iran to Milan to Los Angeles, New Jersey and then phone calls in Houston.

We love our friends at a distance for years, hoping that we will see them one day and thinking that they will always be there for us.

I met Piruz and Nahid 50 years ago as a young, energetic, active and hopeful generation, in a beautiful life full of travels, gatherings with friends, cultural events, festivals and seminars. A life that was a dream to all young people, a period in history that showed how good we all can be. How much potential we can have. We saw life only with possibilities in those years.

The friendship that started in then, made us grow and grow old together in the same way, which made us become close.

We saw our families grow and kept in contact, we were happy for each other and how our kids are growing. I was enjoying hearing about Mani’s travels and the new recipes online!...

New lives and new ideas on both ends of our relationship.

Then the sad news came.

I didn’t expect it, i was still hoping that she would get better and be back to her happy self again.

I am only glad that she was part of our lives and I think of her positive words, her laughs, her jokes and quick solutions do every problem, the easy going of her mind, straight talking and most of all, accepting life as a fact, she never complained. She was responsible for her decisions.

A person that loved movies, found a job at a theater, what a better solution!

Be strong my dears.
