“ Jodene, Ellis Ann, and Kyle-What wonderful memories I have of Aunt Norma and Uncle Joe. My Mom and Dad loved them so, as did I. The last time I saw your mom was when she drove to Lake Jackson to see Mom. She was always so kind and gentle and she and Mom talked and talked, even though Alzheimer's had robbed Mom of most of her memory. I appreciated that so much. God's peace to you and your families. I think of you all often--Sharon Schwing Hill

“ Norma Scaff has to be the most beautiful person I have known, inside and out! She is an angel with a smile that is so contagious, I can't picture her in my mind without smiling myself! So many of my favorite childhood memories spent with her. Although we will miss her dearly while we stay here and keep going; I find it comforting to know that she will be on the welcoming squad when it's my turn to be in Heaven. I pray for blessings upon her and her family during this time. May you all have that, "peace that passes ALL understanding." Ellis, I'm here if you need me...Love to you all and especially you, Cuz, Gaynel
