

Patricio Aguilar Mora

December 9, 1997 - September 9, 2015

Patricio Aguilar Mora, 17 years old, passed away on Wednesday, September 9, 2015. Patricio was born in Mexico City on December 9, 1997. He is survived by his mother Elisa Mora, his father Oscar Aguilar, his siblings Sebastian, Luciana and Nicolas, his step dad Paul Stack and extended family and friends.

Patricio moved to Houston in 2004 and settled with his family in Katy where he lived and attended Taylor High School. He was a senior at high school and dreamed of attending the University of Texas at Austin. Patricio participated in his school band playing the trumpet, intramural sports and was on the golf team. He also loved tennis, spending time with his younger brothers and sister, romping around Katy with his friends and playing Fifa. Above all, Patricio loved his family and friends with who he always shared his smile, his great sense of humor, his kindness and his graciousness; he made all of us feel loved.

His family and friends loved him dearly and will always remember him fondly. He was one heck of a fine young man.

There will be a Memorial service at St. Peter's United Methodist Church 20775 Kingsland Blvd., Katy, TX 77450 to celebrate Patricio's life Monday September 14th, 2015 at 4:00 pm.

“ I've known Patricio since elementary school. We were in band together all throughout junior and for the first two years of high school. Pat was an extraordinary guy. Despite his lively behavior, he was easily extremely well mannered. I remember all the crazy times that we had at my house when we would do the end-of-the-school year hang-outs on the last day of school at my house. I also remember going and spending the night at Harrisons with you all the time. Pat was always either the first one to go to bed, or the last one to go to sleep. I remember on the band trip to Disney World, Pat, Sam, Eric and I were all rooming together. Pat brought his Bluetooth speaker and loved to fall asleep to music and I would always tell him to 'turn that thing off!' I always remembered skipping band rehearsal too, we would always say we had 'tennis practice' and skip band practice together.. But out of all my memories with Pat, the ones that stand out the most come from tennis. Pat loved to play tennis all the time and we played together as doubles partners in both junior high and high school. I remember getting second place at districts in 7th grade for doubles with Pat. Even though we won most of our matches, there would always be those 'bad days' and Patricio ALWAYS carried me through with strong words of encouragement. I remember Coach Kniffen was always on Patricio for something too whether it be pegging acorns at people during practice or turning his music up on the bus with his speaker, either way it always gave everyone on the team a good laugh. I remember winning our first match in high school against Strake and how happy we were. Every time I go out on the tennis court I'm going to be thinking of you man. You'll forever be in my prayers. Thanks for giving so many great memories.

“ Anytime we went to go play basketball at the grace equestrian center no matter who was their you always had the Guts to challenge to a game of 2v2 even if they looked like they were NBA worthy material! You were by side in good and bad times no matter what circumstance! We always found something to do in time of boredom. Can't remember a day we didn't laugh when we chilled! Playing sports and living life will never be the same. You tought me many things in life and for that I am very thankful! Love you brother “ Words can't describe how much of a great friend you really were Pat. I can remember so many times when I was too nervous or unwilling to do something and you would always give me the confidence and motivation to do it. And you always made sure we were having a good time. Those three pointers off the backboard weren't the prettiest but you sure knew how to make them fall in. I cherish all these memories we have from double dating at the Astros game to somehow making jokes while watching unfunny movies to playing airsoft and 4 on 4. Your laugh was so contagious and I'll miss it and you so much. I love you brother.

“ I remember Pat from way back in the Pattison days but It wasn't till junior high we became good friends. We used to spend all those nights at Harrison's doing stupid things whether it was ding dong ditch or wrestling on a mattress. Pat was always such a happy kid and now that I think about it I never saw him unhappy he was always happy and cracking jokes. Once he had even gotten Astros tickets and he decided to take me and brad with him and we ended up going on our own which basically made super amped to go, but when we got there he knew nothing about baseball😭. We had to teach him a lot and gave him a hard time but he just seemed to just laugh everything off and turn it into a good time. We had even met Jeff Bagwell that night and Pat had no idea who he was. As we grew up Pat would always be the one to try to instigate us to do something and you'd roam around katy trying to find something to do. At any point in the day tired or not if there was something to do, he was doing it. We stopped hanging out as often this last year which I immediately regret but whenever I saw is face anywhere he wouldn't fail to put a smile on my face with his awesome personality. RIP Pat and you'll never be forgotten in the hearts of many.

“ Pat, you were truly an amazing friend. No matter what circumstance, you always welcomed me with open arms ever since the first time we hung out. You had a way of always being able to get everyone together to go play whatever activity it would be. Playing football, air soft, fantasy football, soccer, ultimate frisbee, and all the other fun things we always did together will never be the same without you. You have taught me so much in how to have a good time no matter what we were doing and to just "live a little". I love you Pat. Rest in peace.

“ I will never forget the airsoft wars, 4on4 football with your playbook, FIFA, and roaming the streets with you at night with the crew. You were such a competitive and relaxed person. I will miss seeing the classic one leg over the other sit that you posed to perfection, and will especially miss watching my back every time I was around you because I knew if I was doing something stupid, you'd be right there recording it. I love you pat. You were such a great guy and you were going to be the next big business man. I know you'll be enjoying the view from above, rip brother.

“ pat, you were the first friend chase ever introduced me to and clearly there was a reason why. you were the sweetest guy to me and we all had some fun, memorable nights together. we all miss you but God couldn't wait any longer, he needed you up there to watch down over all of us. you will truly be missed and we will all carry you along with us for the rest of our lives. im so happy i got to meet you because you are somebody i will never and could never forget. rest in peace buddy.

““El taqueria, al lado de la cama, encima de la ropa.” I know, it makes absolutely no sense, but together, Pat and I could find so much amusement from the silliest little things we would put together. We would sing this silly phrase and laugh until we were tired. When I think of Pat, the first thing that comes to mind is all of the inside jokes we had that were just plain bizzare. It was almost like our own language. Pat always had a personality that was so extraordinarily unique. Pat was entertaining, adventurous, and incredibly outgoing, but at the same time he was very well-mannered and had strong ethics. I know that Patricio's family is what guided and raised him to be the one we all love and know as Pat. Pat, I am so grateful to have had you there for me in every situation and circumstance. You will always and forever be in my thoughts and prayers.”
