

Paul Jeremiah Ring

September 11, 1957 - August 26, 2013

Paul Jeremiah Ring fought for his passions, fought for the ones he loved, and in his last years, he fought for his life. Surrounded by family, Paul passed away peacefully on Monday, August 26th, 2013. He is survived by his wife, Amy, his daughters, Cristina and Ava, and his brother and sister, Sean Ring and Elizabeth Crowley.

Paul spent his 55 years between Massachusetts and Texas, between the beaches of the Atlantic and the shores of the Gulf of Mexico. Deep-rooted in the Ring tradition, he spent much of his life on the beach... rarely pictured wearing a shirt. When he wasn't working his nights as a pharmacist, he enjoyed live music and shows, his Boston sports teams, and a very thorough read of the newspaper.

Paul Jeremiah Ring's legacy is captured in the words of his late father, Don Ring:

No man is more than what he leaves behind/
And love alone transcends the quiet earth./
No one of us, in spite of mundane worth,/
Can call a halt to pestle natures' grind/
Or stop our slow decline to mutest dust./...
And kings and servants both must feel the press/
Of patient Mother's welcoming caress./
And since a man is only what he leaves/
You have no peer, but stand alone above/
The rest, for your estate is priceless love.

A Funeral Service celebrating Paul's life will be held Saturday, August 31, 2013 at 3:00 PM in the chapel of Dettling Funeral Home, 14094 Memorial Drive, Houston, Texas 77079.
