“Peggy was first and foremost a mother. She loved to brag on Jennifer and Margaret; she really loved being their mother! Her career as a designer was a natural one, as she loved decorating her home, and then enjoyed cooking delicious food, especially desserts, that we all enjoyed. A mother, a hostess, an interior designer...she did everything well. She was careful to take care of herself and stay fit and strong, when it was not as popular as it is today. Her outer beauty and inner beauty were inspiring, as was her resolve to be a wonderful mother for her daughters. I'm so happy she had a relationship with her grandchildren; one of the last times I saw Peggy, she was at lunch with her grandson and was so very proud to introduce him, and have him as her lunch partner! Wishing your family peace and comfort as you celebrate and remember her life.

“Peggy was a sweet friend from our GHS class of 1961. I always remember that her birthday is one day after mine. Peace and blessings to her family.

“Peggy was a dear friend to those of us in the Garland High School Class of 1961. She was beautiful inside and out - an asset to our class. Our little close-knit group of gals had such good times together - so many fun memories - from Fair Day to slumber parties. I know she blessed her family as daughter, sister, mom, grandmom, and mother-in-law.
