

Roger Marion Logan

January 9, 1957 - April 3, 2022

Roger Marion Logan, 65, of Houston, Texas, entered into rest on April 3, 2022. He was born in Houston, Texas on January 9, 1957 to parents Hazel Eddins Spence and Robert Lill Logan, and is survived by his daughter Melissa Logan.

He was an avid engineer, physicist, mathematician, hunter, and musician, and he was deeply passionate about promoting STEM education in children and young adults.

Roger was also a beloved member of the steampunk community, where he was known as Adam Douglass Cruize, or A.D. Cruize. He loved meeting new people, crafting new parts to his outfits, and sharing his knowledge of science and sci-fi and ballroom dance to anyone who wanted to learn. He will be missed.

A memorial service will be held in Roger's honor on Saturday, April 16, 2022 from 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM at Dettling Funeral Home, 14094 Memorial Drive, Houston, Texas 77079. Face masks are required to attend the service.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks for donations in Roger's memory to the Acoustical Society Foundation Fund: <https://acousticalsociety.org/foundation-fund/>

“ Roger was my "baby cousin;" he was born while I was in high school. I had not met him in person until nearly five years ago at the Logan reunion. Immediately I was drawn to Rog because of his charisma and zany sense of humor.

We began emailing each other in early 2020. Roger mentioned his cancer diagnosis and sent weekly updates on his progress. Emails from him became less frequent late last year. The last one I received from Roger was after Thanksgiving when he was headed back from an Acoustical Society meeting in Seattle. He sounded so happy that he had been with his "other family."

I treasure Roger and miss him very much. Thankfully, his suffering has ended. I am deeply sorry for your loss.

“ I have known Roger since College, SFA. He has always loved camping, fishing, and the beach. We both had a love of sand sculpting and competed in many contests on the Gulf Coast. He will be missed.
