June 4, 1961 - May 5, 2023

Scott "Stacy" Brown peacefully passed away May 5, 2023, surrounded by his loving family. He was 61 years of age. He is survived by Kellye Riley Brown, his wife of 27 years. His two children Scott Stacy Brown Jr. and Emily Grace Brown, his mother, Martha Jane Brown, his in laws, Rick and Marilynne Riley, Serita Riley, his sister and brother in law Sara and John Mallon, his nephews Patrick, Matthew and Will Mallon.

He was born on June 4, 1961, in Little Rock, Arkansas. On December 14, 1961, Emery Eugene "Gene" and Martha Jane Brown received a call that their baby boy would soon be joining their family. On December 18th he was in their arms heading to their home in Blytheville, AR. He was the biggest answer to their long awaited prayers.

Stacy was raised in Blytheville, AR surrounded by his beloved extended family. He was a national honor society scholar during his teen years. He began his college career at LSU where he fell in love with the school and the culture. He transferred to Centenary College in Shreveport, LA. where he was an active member of the Theta Chi Fraternity. He graduated in 1983 with a Bachelors of Science in Business Administration.

Stacy's main priority was always people. He was a lover of music, sailing, baseball and wine. Stacy was involved with the HLSR for 29 years where he served on the WCBBQ committee and as a Vice Chairman on the wine committee. His love of wine led him to become a sommelier in 2010 which started many unforgettable trips to Napa Valley. Stacy obtained his sailing captain's license and used it to explore the beauty of the world's oceans with family and friends. When on land, he delighted in songwriting and playing in bands around Houston, TX.

Due to Stacy's optimistic outlook on life, dedication to hard work and genuine care for others, he excelled in his sales career throughout his adult life. He often befriended colleagues and clients alike, everyone was a friend to Stacy Brown.

Stacy's last years were marked by an incredible fight with ALS. He lived everyday with intention and hope. Stacy's faith was put into action as he weathered the storm that life brought. Stacy, Kellye, Emily, Scott, Jane, the "Cousin Friends" and the multitude of friends turned family chose to continue Just Livin'.

Stacy will be greatly missed for his fun loving personality, his gregariousness, his deep love for his wife, children, mother and friends. If you knew Stacy, you knew a good time. The love he shared will echo in the lives of those survived by him for generations to come. We rest assured that he is now in the arms of the God he loved and served throughout his life on earth.

A heartfelt thank you to our sweet Carlisa for loving and caring for Stacy daily. He loved you dearly. We would also like to thank Gabriel with Houston Hospice for taking such good care of "the boss".

“ My sincere condolences to your family. I attended East Junior High and Blytheville High School with Stacy where we had many classes together. I remember his outgoing personality and the way he brought humor to any situation. Anyone who knew Stacy from this time probably remembers his hilarious impersonations of Steve Martin, including wearing a King Tut costume to school for Spirit Day when we were Seniors!

“ I had the absolute pleasure of working with Stacy at SMT. His office was right across the hall from mine and we use to cut up and jam out to fun music on Friday's and he and I would alternate buying Whataburger taquitos for eachother every other Friday! He was such a hoot and we laughed all the time! We had a blast at work. I also was a member of the HSLR wine committee when he and I worked there together so I enjoyed working with him outside of work at our shared extracurricular activity as well. He is certainly a soul gone much too soon. My deepest condolences go out to his family and extended family. My sincerest regards, Kenedy Hughes

“ So saddened by the loss of your Stacy - he was such a light to the board of Texas Chapter - ALS Association. I always enjoyed the chance to listen to his perspective, ask such awesome questions, and push the rest of us to make the best decisions for families impacted by ALS. The first time I met Stacy, we had a good laugh that my Stacy, who was also impacted by ALS, were both such amazing, fun, life-loving Stacy's...

Know that you and your entire family are in my thoughts and prayers. And now I know my Stacy has another buddy to hang out with him and the angels in heaven. - Holly Crowder

“ So sorry to hear about Stacy's passing. I didn't get to work with Stacy very long but I really enjoyed his zest for life and the love he had for his family. I had the pleasure of going with him once on our lunch break to Specs to look for a bottle of wine for a celebration. When we walked in the door, so many people came up to Stacy, asking how he was doing or just waving to him, etc. it was like he was a celebrity! Knowing him and how he seemed to truly care about the people around him, no matter their capacity was it wasn't really a surprise to see how people cared and liked him. He will be missed.

“ I can't think of a time where Stacy didn't have a smile, a joke, or a great story to share. The energy, optimism, and presence Stacy presented were inspiring. That doesn't even touch on the crawfish boils!

“ I have so many great memories of traveling with Stacy for work. We were a dynamic duo giving sales presentations across the country. He never met a stranger. He was almost twice my age but had so much energy and was always dragging me along to concerts, baseball games, and great restaurants after a long day of work and travel. We had a blast everywhere we went. One time we brought our guitars up to the office and had an afternoon jam session. He was a truly special person and I feel lucky to have gotten to spend some time with him and to have those great memories.

Condolences to Kellye, Scott and Emily. My friendship with Stacy through Boy Scouts was a great experience. Stacy had a positive spirit in every moment, no matter the challenge. The world is lessened without him. When I heard this news I new I had to find the video above and share it with you. This captures who Stacy was - 40 miles in the backcountry on a mountaintop, living life to it's fullest.

Kellye, Scott and Emily. Our thoughts and prayers are with you in this very difficult period. It is with great sorrow that I read the news. With Danielle and I rarely in the USA these days, I have not had the chance to catch up with Stacy in the last few years.

His friendship, leadership and joyful character even under difficult circumstances was an inspiration to myself and others when we all volunteered in the Boy Scouts as assistant Leaders.

I will never forget the two summer high adventure camps that we did together, specially the Montana high adventure camp.

“ I met Stacey through the boy-scouts which both our sons. He was such a welcoming guy, who kept it down to earth with a fun filled spirit. Had beers together with him, talked music and life experiences - always a great person to spend time with. He gave off a lot of light and though he's passed away, the warmth from knowing him still burns. My heartfelt condolences to his family. He was always immensely proud of them, and for good reason.

“ I was fortunate enough to meet Stacy in the early 2010's in Pittsburgh. Stacy was such an interesting guy and one of the nicest fellas I've ever met. His personality was electric and I always looked forward to his visits. I still have the wine glass that he bought me as a gift in the window sill of my office. He left a striking impression on me in the few years that we did business together. My heart goes out to those who were truly close to Stacy. Stacy was the best and will be missed.

“ Stacy was a true gem and having known him made me a better person! He was always so thoughtful and caring. I remember one occasion when we were speaking, and he could tell something was off in my voice. He said, "Are you okay? You don't sound like yourself." Stacy was that person that knew when you weren't having a good day and made it a point to make you feel better. I will miss him and his big personality. I know he is singing in heaven and that makes me happy. Rest in peace, my dear friend! You will never be forgotten! Michelle Roy
