

Thomas Eyre Booth

July 28, 1931 - November 20, 2014

Thomas Eyre Booth was called into the Lord's presence on November 20, 2014. Tom was born in Manchester, New Hampshire, to parents, Robert P. and Lois R. Booth. He is preceded in death by his parents and a son, John Villarreal, and survived by his loving wife of over 47 years, Alicia R. Booth; daughter, Jo Yvonne (Tom) Nevanen; son, Rick (Alma) Villarreal; daughter-in-law, Nidia Villarreal; grandchildren, Romeo, Thomas, Lexie, Torie, Allie, and Julie Villarreal; a brother, Alan Booth; and many nieces and nephews, extended family, and dear friends. The family is grateful for the loving care provided by Dr. Joel Abramowitz, Dr. Jon Heine, the hospice staff at VITAS, and the staff at Vosswood Nursing Center.

Tom attended Dartmouth University, served in the U.S. Army as a paratrooper during the Korean War, and worked as a commercial iron worker (Iron Worker's Local Union, #584). He enjoyed sailing and sports, loved the challenge of solving crossword puzzles, had a passion for growing tomatoes, and, most of all, treasured Rodriguez family gatherings. The essence of Tom is summarized by his rock solid support and wisdom which he shared with his loved ones.

Pallbearers will be Rick Villarreal, Tom Nevanen, Joe Rodriguez, Eduardo Rodriguez, Romeo Rodriguez, Brad Waggoner, Ray Torres, and Gilbert Gonzalez. In lieu of flowers, the family would encourage donations to either

“ I have many memories of spending time with Tom at many family gatherings, he always had interesting conversations of things he had read or seen. I especially remember the time we spent in Colorado rafting a few years ago. Tom will be missed by many including me and my family.
