“ My brother Tom, always so funny, full of trust, loved to show me "all I didn't know". One week-end afternoon, he let me talk him into allowing me to take his prized mini-bike for a short ride. Quick instruction from him: (brake pedal, gas) and I assured him that I was ready to go! He trusted me!! (I'd never ridden a mini-bike in my life!!) Off I went, flying straight up the narrow sidewalk in between our childhood house on Chapel, and the neighbors house, the Clément's. I was screaming with excitement as my speed and prowess increased. I was goooood at this until I mistook the gas handlebar grip for the breaks, and went hurling right up that skinny sidewalk straight through our side gate, across the brick patio, and clear through the backyard! I was paralyzed with fear, Tom running after me screaming for me to stop at the top of his lungs. It was a strange rush, the speed, the fear, Tom going berserk, the terror of it all. I would be in Northern Canada were it not for me running smack into a tree stump, being thrown off, and watching as Tom chased down the rider less mini-bike to the very back of our yard! I did make another key error: I began to laugh at him and the situation almost as soon as I hit the ground. Tom didn't speak to me for some time after that!

My love, prayers, and comfort to all who loved him. - - Shawn - -

“ So many memories of such a loving and kind uncle. Still one of my favorites is sitting in his lap in the brown truck at the bank parking lot while he was teaching me how to drive..i may have given him, nickole and myself concussions that day as I didn't quite get the concept of the clutch lol. He was just so patient though and instead of getting mad he laughed. It just goes to show how loving he was and his love for children especially. I swear that he could parallel park in a spot a snail might not fit. I was always so impressed by that. Him and nickole had a father daughter bond so close that you normally only see in movies or read in books and my heart goes out to her right now as well as robert, Jason, melissa, his grandchildren and the rest of his family. Until We Meet Again One Day Uncle Tom, I'll Love you always

“ I met Tom in 1982 he was on the very first job I was sent to in this trade. It was a terminal at Hobby airport. We both then went to the Enron building downtown and worked that job for a long while. A lot of great memories. Never a dull moment when working with Tom. I learned a lot about this trade from Tom. He was a good brother and a good friend. Definitely one of a kind. The angels in heaven must have been in need of a great story teller. RIP my friend and prayers for the family to get through this difficult time.

“ I was very sad to hear the loss of my old friend and union brother. Tom and I worked together in the mid 80s in Houston. To many of us he was known as "Tom Terrific". I was hoping to see him at the next union meeting, as many years have passed between us. God bless the family God bless Brother Tom. With deepest respect,

“ Being new to the McCarthy family, I only met Tom once. We spent a week together at Kathleen's lake house on Rifle Lake, the site of plenty of McCarthy history. Simply put, Tom was larger than life. I quickly learned that he was gifted. Whether it was the gift of telling a story or knowing how everything worked and if broken how it could be repaired, Tom could do it all. And his energy was boundless.

During our winter months up north, Kathleen and I would look around the house, see Tom's work from last summer and ask each other"is Tom going to "come up north" this summer?" I think I already know the answer. He is already there. He loved the lake house.

May his memory be eternal.

“ When Nickole first called me with the terrible news I was not sure what to say other than I am so sorry. Tom was and will always be like a second father to me. I miss him so much already. I had the pleasure of meeting Tom over 20 years ago when I met his daughter who is and will forever be the best friend that anyone could ever ask for. I love Nickole so much and am grateful that I met her and her family. I miss and love you dad! You will never be forgotten:-) If there is one thing I can promise you forever is that I will take care of your daughter until we see you again.

Tom and I met in 1986 at work we quickly became friends and worked together on many jobs we enjoyed competing against each other on the job and off, and had a great time for years. Tom would be the first one to come and help you no matter how hard the task or how long it took he was fiercely loyal to his friends and unafraid of his foes. once with my first child was born in my vehicle broke down I was unable to afford to fix it Tom lent me his old brown Ford pickup truck for over a month until I could acumulate the cash to repair my own vehicle, he refused any repayment for the loan of that and I was forever grateful.another time after I had severely injured my back , Tom and another friend of mine Jim Dostalic came over and dug 30 fence post holes in the middle of summer in the hardest ground imaginable with an old worn out pair of post hole diggers and the only payment either of them would take was a steak dinner and cold beer and a handshake.there were numerous other occasions when he rendered similar help there's not enough space on this page to write of them, Tom was always the life of the party (and we attended several) and we spent many hours playing pool and shuffleboard in some of the Finer icehouses of Houston. anyway you could always count on my friend Tom no matter what the trouble and he knew the same about me, and I'm sure going to miss that guy.

“ Growing up with Tom was always a blast... as a friend he was always there for me... the life of every party, he had the best jokes and stories to tell. Always made me laugh. As a brother in law he was wonderful, he went along with all the wild rides with this family. As a father, one of the best!! He loved children of all ages, he always found time to play at any given time. As a Godfather to our daughter he felt it was an honor and treated her as a special one. In my darkest of times he gave me hope and told me I had beautiful words for children. He once told me as I was talking to a child that was grieving "Those are the most beautiful words I have ever heard anyone say to a child" and that is who Tom McCarthy was... a wonderful friend, brother in law father and Uncle.
I will miss you my friend...

“Heaven gained another angel, My Uncle will truly be missed by everyone that knew him. Although he lived down South he has always been someone I could talk to and could make me laugh. He inspired me to read books I would never think to read and I could not thank him enough. I will never forget the Christmas we didn't have snow and him along with my dad and Uncle Jerry went to the ice rink around the block and put snow on the lawn so we would have a white Christmas. Thank you for everything you have taught me and I know you will always be watching over me. I love you Uncle Tom! Rest in Paradise

Nickole, like Gregory, I was one of Tom's cousins. I was good cousin-friends with his sisters and remember that I would tease him for his ears (I know, so mean-girl). Tom was always so sweet, with an angelic face and demeanor. I moved to the west coast in the late 1980's and haven't seen Tom in many years.

Please know that I am thinking of you and your entire family at this time and will always remember Tom as a really good guy.

“Tom was quite the wild thing when we were young. I remember he was always taking a car and dropping the biggest engine that could fit into it, extras just took up important engine space. One memory I will always have is a carload of us pulling into a parking lot where a team (I think soccer) was practicing near. Tom suddenly turns the wheel and floors it to make a donut with a huge smoke ring rising into the sky. We were all laughing and choking on smoke at the same time as the soccer practice halted to give a standing ovation. John Kauffman was there with us. It has been a long time. Goodbye Tom. You are someone I'll always remember with a smile.
