Thressa Agatha Heard passed away Tuesday, June 3, 2014 in New Braunfels, TX.

On August 7, 1933 in Houston TX I was born to Mr. & Mrs. P.F. Heard. Three brothers preceded me. Jack and wife Faye had 7 children: Elaine, Jack, Bill (Debbie), Steve, Patrick, Joe (Kay), and Mary. Bill, a 1st Lt in the Marines was killed on Okinawa in 1945. Bob and wife Shirley had 6 children: Bob (Lisa), Kathy (Ronnie) Baker, Tim (Shana), Cindy, Michael (Cherie), Tom (Suzy). I began my work life with Humble Oil where I remained for 24 years. At age 43 I entered the Religious of the Cenacle. Eighteen of my twenty-five years as a Cenacle Sister were at the Houston Cenacle. Since 2005 I have lived in New Braunfels, TX. where it has been an honor to serve the Diocese of San Antonio as a spiritual director and supervisor for St Peter On The Water Spiritual Direction Institute.

I feel blessed to have had so much love and support from all of my family and friends and I want to thank all of you for being a unique part of my life. It is an honor and a privilege to call each of you friend and I ask that you now celebrate with me this next stage of my journey.

“ So many wonderful memories of Thressa have flooded my heart and mind these past two days. Of course many of those are of the times we had together while at the Cenacle - SDI days - my annual 10-day silent retreats with Thressa to be my guide - decorating for the Christmas Eve celebration there --- getting ready for Taize evenings - changing sheets and cleaning rooms when a massive rainstorm left LOTS of unexpected daytime guests who had to spend the night -- grief retreat weekends when Thressa welcomed our team with open arms and so much more !

But for me the two most poignant memories of Thressa happened when I saw her as I exited the sanctuary after Stephen's funeral mass. There she was waiting for me - ready to walk that very painful and very long journey with me over the next few years. I sat in that wonderful rocker across from her, in her office, and she held my pain and encouraged me to just let it come. She assured me that all of this was being held and that I was being loved all the way through the darkness. The second most poignant memory for me was of Thressa offering the "Eulogy" for my father-in-law whom she had not known. She had listened to the stories so well and captured his essence with great honesty and gentleness. John's whole family was so very touched by Thressa's presence and words. Thress had offered her very special gift of being real and authentic! It was more than enough.

Thressa I love you - I thank you - and I can only hope that I will be able to offer some small portion of the love you have given me to others. You are on a new journey now and what you have only known through faith is now yours to embrace face-to-face ! What rejoicing there must be among the communion of saints !

“Provocateur” – “Evocateur” that was Thressa!

The experience of a spiritual direction session with Thressa was like that.

You didn't know if something was being “provoked” or “evoked!”

She had the ability, the skill, to ask a question that could lead to an entirely new and creative perspective about a particular issue.

She was a mentor, teacher, fellow seeker, companion and friend.

My life has been enriched beyond telling by her gentle, joy-filled and generous spirit.

She was, for me, “God-with-skin-on.”

Thank you Thressa.

Go now, my friend, to the full embrace of the God you served so well.

“Thressa Agatha Heard made a lasting impression the few times we spoke while I was facilitating a retreat at the Cenacle Center in Houston, TX. I remember, especially, her gratitude when I told her my calling was "to seek the seekers and bring them closer." She noted that Cenacles were often chided for "preaching to the choir," and she was glad that now she could tell people that the Cenacles were not "preaching to the choir" but, rather, bringing the seekers closer.

She lives in my heart and will live eternally in the hearts of all those she has touched.

I hope this poem may provide some comfort to all those who know and love Thressa:

Veiled Vibrations

*Veiled vibrations
barely separate night from day,
life from death,
Hovering gently around us,
waiting,
until one day,
we cross over,
into their embrace,
