

Travis Garrett Walker

October 19, 1973 - July 27, 2012

Travis Garrett Walker, 38, of Katy, passed away on Friday July 27, 2012. He was born October 19, 1973 in Houston, grew up in Katy and graduated from Taylor High School. Travis loved to write music and play guitar, bass and drums on recordings he made in his home studio. He also loved art, especially graphic art, which he studied at the University of Houston. Travis knew how to make others laugh through his impressions and slightly twisted sense of humor. But most of all, Travis loved his family, making them the center of his universe.

Travis is survived by his loving wife, Kirstin Adamoli Walker and their son Levi Adams Walker; father W. Stephen Walker and his wife Joan; mother Janet Walker; brother Stuart Walker; sister Stephanie Walker Johnson and her husband Mark; nephew Ethan Johnson; and grandparents Ann and Bill Walker and Gertrude Jones.

A visitation will be held Friday, August 3, 2012 at 1:00 PM followed by a memorial service at 3:00 PM in the Chapel of D.M. Dettling Funeral Directors, 14094 Memorial Drive, between Kirkwood and Dairy Ashford. A private interment will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers please consider memorial contributions in Travis' memory to the Ronald McDonald House at <https://donate.rmhc.org/SSLPage.aspx?pid=3>

“ Kirstin & the Walker family. I just found out today about Travis' passing and i am shocked and truely sorry for your loss. Although we fell out of touch for many years, Travis was always one of my favorite buddies who i truely had shared alot of my best times with. We grew up together in our teens & early 20's, and he will always be one of my bro's as we used to call each other. I wished i got to see him as a father playing with his kids. I pray that you and your family persevere thought this difficult time. God bless.

Travis always had a smile and was making jokes. I didn't get to meet him many times but felt like I knew him through Kirstin.
