

Vickie Kay Bloomer

May 9, 1955 - November 9, 2015

Vickie Kay Bloomer, 60, of Houston passed away Monday, November 9, 2015. Vickie was born May 9, 1955 in Emmons, North Carolina. She is preceded in death by her parents, Henry and Josephine Davis and sister Wanda. She is survived by her husband of 38 years, Timothy Bloomer; her children, Tymon Bloomer & wife Leslie, Thomas Bloomer and Tonya Bloomer; her grandson, Wade Davis Bloomer as well as other extended family and dear friends.

Vickie grew up on the East coast in North Carolina. She attended Tennessee Temple University, receiving a Bachelor of Arts in Bible Studies and California State University where she attained the degree of Master of Humanities. Vickie was an accomplished pianist; she loved to accompany Timothy on the violin. She loved to read, knit, crochet and spend time with her family.

Vickie was a curious learner and quite appreciative of the beauty of the world around her. She had a very strong faith and was always "Heaven Focused". Mrs. Bloomer was a member of Tallowood Baptist Church. She was loved by those who knew her and will be greatly missed.

The Bloomer family will be present to receive friends Thursday, November 12, 2015 from 10:00 AM until 11:00 am at Tallowood Baptist Church, 555 Tallowood Rd., Houston, TX 77024. A Memorial Service celebrating Vickie's life will commence at 11:00 AM in the Chapel of Tallowood Baptist.

“ Tim, Tonya, Thomas, Tymon, Leslie, and baby Wade,
I am so very sorry for your great loss. Vickie was such a talented, giving, courageous woman. My prayers are with you in these difficult days.

“ My heart is saddened to hear about Aunt Vicki's passing. And my heart and prayers go out to Uncle Tim and their children. Aunt Vicki had a delightful personality. Every time I saw her, which wasn't often enough, she was so warm and giving. I will miss her.
