July 2, 1936 - April 28, 2016

Victor Manuel Sanchez, 79, of Houston, TX passed away Thursday, April 28, 2016. Mr. Sanchez was born July 2, 1936 in El Salvador to Fidelina Ortiz & Benito Sanchez. He is also survived by his many loyal friends.

Victor grew up in San Pedro Masahuat, El Salvador. In 1976, he migrated to the United States for the opportunity of a better life. He had a talent for fixing cars and as a result joined the Ford Motor Company where he acquired further training. This preparation allowed him to start his own small business: Sanchez Auto Service. Although it proved to be successful, God had different plans for his life. Victor had a deep yearning to serve the Lord, therefore, attended various Bible seminars for ministry training. Because of this passion to serve the Lord, perhaps his greatest achievement was helping to establish churches in El Salvador, Mexico, and various regions in the United States. He is remembered by many for his relentless work in the ministry of the Lord.
