

Vivian Norris Bond

October 9, 1924 - September 14, 2022

Sarah Vivian Norris Bond died peacefully at home surrounded by family on September 14, 2022, one month short of her ninety-eighth birthday. The only child of Willie C. and Edna Norris of Bogart, Georgia, Vivian was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, a “great” grandmother in both senses of the phrase, and a fried chicken and biscuit maker extraordinaire.

After graduating second in her class from Bogart High School at the age of sixteen in 1941, she married Ned James Bond, Jr., and they began a life together that would last sixty-four years until his death in 2006 and take her from Georgia to Kansas to Illinois to Louisiana and finally to Houston, where she spent the last fifty-seven years of her life.

For most of her life, Vivian was the prototypical stay-at-home wife and mother, patiently spending her time acting as cook, maid, chauffeur, nurse, batting practice pitcher, referee, warden and amateur psycho-therapist to her crew of six children, sixteen grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

In her later years, Vivian became active in the family business, driving herself to and from work every day until she retired at the age of ninety-four with the onset of Covid.

Vivian was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Ned, and her daughter Linda Bond Thompson. She is survived by sons Jim, Norris, Douglas, and Eric Bond and daughter Angela Bond Panuska, as well as her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

The Bond family will be present to receive friends Wednesday, September 21, 2022 from 6:00 PM until 8:00 PM at Dettling Funeral Home, 14094 Memorial Dr., Houston, TX 77079. A funeral service will be held Thursday, September 22, 2022 at 10:00 AM at Foundry Methodist Church, 8350 Jones Rd., Houston, TX 77065. Mrs. Bond will be laid to rest next to her husband Friday, September 23, 2022 at 2:00 PM in Graceland Cemetery, Abbeville, Louisiana.
