“ My name is Beth Jordan, a niece of William Moore. One of the best memories my family and I shared together with Uncle Bill and Aunt Sallie was our Houston trip over the Christmas holiday 19 years ago. Uncle Bill and Aunt Sallie took us to see many Houston tourist attractions and great Mexican restaurants, even a restaurant that had a pile of snow! I close my eyes and see Uncle Bill and Tom in sombreros with their arms around their shoulders! Funny memory! During that vacation Uncle Bill worked on a very difficult book report with my son.....he was extremely helpful, patient and loving with Thomas! (Uncle Bill was very smart, I never understood the book!) It was the best vacation we had together and will always be a fond memory of my uncle and aunt! Uncle Bill later went to see Thomas at track meets in Austin, one in the rain.....for that I will always be grateful! Thank you God for blessing our family with a wonderful person and I know you will take care of him in heaven!

“ I worked with Bill many years ago at Roy F. Weston, Inc. in West Chester, Pa. and I always enjoyed the time we spent together. Our paths crossed again when we both relocated to Houston, but we were then working for different organizations and we did not see each other often. I did not see Bill at all after I moved to Dallas in 1989, but I remember him as a fine man.
